REGISTRATION PLANS COMPLETE IN CARBON

ONE THOUSAND OR MORE EXPECTED TO BE DRAFTED NEXT TUESDAY.

Out of An Estimated Population of Close to Thirteen Thousand This County Will Supply Its Full Quota For the Colors.

Sheriff Collingham, by virtue of his office in charge of the registration by selective draft in Carbon county, this morning told The Sun that everything locally is in complete readiness for registration at the several precincts of the county on next Tuesday, June 5th, and has been for several days. Immediately upon receipt of instructions from the authorities at Washington, D. C., and from Gov. Simon Bamberger at Salt Lake City the middle of last week, Sheriff Collingham lost no time, the result being that was one of the very first of Utah county officials to have things "shipshape."

Estimates of the population of Utah have been prepared in the offices of Gov. Simon Bamberger by cities and counties for the purpose of arriving at a basis to show the number of men who will comprise Utah's quota for the first draft under the selective draft law. The population of Salt Lake City is estimated at 121,344, and of Ogden, 36,349—the only two cities of the state with population in excess of thirty thousand.

Carbon county is credited by the governor's estimates with a population of 12,660, which is considered low by those who are in better position to know. The 1910 census gave a population in excess of ten thousand and the county has been growing these more than six years. Emery county is put down by the governor for 8,018; Duchesne, 8,567; Grand, 11,088; San Juan, 11,111, and Uintah, 7,808, making with the other counties not enumerated a total for the state of 476,092.

If Carbon county registers 10 per cent of its population there would be twelve hundred men for the draft. The places of registration throughout the several voting precincts of the county are generally where the people have in the past been accustomed to vote at elections. In Price the Paternoster building at the south-west corner of Main and Eighth street is to be used.

EVEN CARDINAL POINTS THAT MUST NOT BE OVERLOOKED IN THE DRAFT, TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26.—In its campaign to stimulate interest in registration June 5th for the war army, the war department today issued a memorandum emphasizing the seven cardinal points to be remembered, particularly by men between the ages of 21 and 31, inclusive, who will be required to register. The memorandum follows:

First—There is only one day for registration—June 5, 1917. Second—Every male resident of the United States who has reached his twenty-first and has not reached his thirty-first birthday must register on the day set—June 5, 1917. The only exceptions are persons in the military or naval service of the United States, which includes all officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the regular army reserve, the officers' reserve corps, the enlisted reserve corps, the national guard and national guard reserve, recognized by the militia bureau of the war department; the navy, the marine corps, the coast guard and the naval militia, the naval reserve force, the marine corps reserve and the national volunteers, recognized by the navy department.

Third—Registration is distinct from draft. No matter what claim you have for exemption you must register.

Fourth—Registration is a public duty. For those not responsive to the sense of this duty the penalty of imprisonment (not death) is provided in the draft act.

Fifth—Those who through sickness who shall be unable to register should cause a representative to apply to the county or city clerk for a copy of the registration card. The clerk will give instructions as to how this card should be filled out. The same should then be mailed by the sick person, or delivered, by his agent, to the registrar of his home district. The sick person will enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return to him of his registration certificate.

Sixth—Any person who expects to be absent from his voting precinct on registration day should apply as soon as practicable for a registration card to the county clerk of the county where he may be staying, or if he is in a city of over thirty thousand, to the city clerk. The clerk will record the answers on the card and mail it over to the absentee. The absentee should mail this card to the registrar of his home district, so that it will reach that official by registration day. A self-addressed stamped envelope should be inclosed with the card to insure the return to the absentee of a registration certificate.

Seventh—Registration booths will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning to 9 o'clock of the evening on registration day, June 5, 1917.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DRAFT ARE BEING WORKED ON

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—Regulations to govern exemptions under the selective draft are being worked out by Provost Marshal General Crowder with a number of prominent lawyers. Although the plans are not yet complete, it is probable that the jury wheel system will be followed in selecting those who are to go into the Army of five hundred thousand, and not until the men have been drawn and each registration district has provided the smaller apportionment to it will exemptions be considered. As each individual drawn reports, his claim for exemption will be passed upon, and if he is found to accept cards only from men he is exempted another will be drawn to fill the vacancy.

The law provides for local exemption boards in each county and for each thirty thousand in city corporations. Boards of review also will be established on the basis of one or more to each Federal judicial district. All the boards will be composed of civilians. Secretary Baker states that the process of selecting those who have not been worked out. Gen. Crowder said that only confusion would result from the reported intention of men above the fixed age to register on June 5th.

"This is a mistaken patriotism," he said, "and registrars will be instructed to accept cards only from men he is exempted another will be drawn to fill the vacancy."

RESTRICTIONS MAY COME

United States Likely to Pattern After Allies On Food Problem.

Food regulations of the allies which probably will furnish the basic for somewhat similar rules in the United States are being assembled to the government. American regulations probably will be less stringent, but this is not surprising. Herbert C. Hoover, selected for food administrator, and other officials from giving careful study to the codes of other warring nations. Here are some of the more striking British regulations:

For public meat the allowance of beef is based on an average of five ounces for each luncheon and dinner, and two ounces for each breakfast served on non-meat days.

Thursdays are meatless days in London and Wednesdays elsewhere in the Kingdom.

Potatoes must not be served except on meatless days and Fridays.

The making of any light fancy pastries, muffins, creams, fancy teacakes and other light articles of food is prohibited.

No cornmeal cake or beans may be made.

Sale of bread, unless twelve hours old, is prohibited.

All bread must be sold by weight and all loaves must be one pound or an even number of pounds.

Fifteen per cent of sugar is allowed in cakes and biscuits; 18 per cent in beans. No sugar may be used in soups.

No person shall acquire supplies for food beyond the needs of his ordinary consumption.

The food controller may order the inspection of premises in which he has reason to believe that hoarding is taking place.

No wheat, rye, rice or tapioca may be used except for human foods.

The output of beef is limited to the rate of 10,000,000 barrels per annum, as compared with 10,000,000 barrels before the war.

Penalty for violation of any rule is six months imprisonment or five hundred dollars fine, or both.

between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive.

LIBERTY LOAN PROGRAM NOW FIXED FOR THE COMING WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—

Men, women and children in every walk of life are given places for active service in the program for Liberty Loan Week beginning next Saturday, made public tonight by the treasury department. Treasury officials also made public tonight an appeal by Samuel Gompers to all members of the American Federation of Labor, requesting them to add the government in making the loan a success.

Liberty bonds are a safe investment and it is a patriotic duty to subscribe for them," said Gompers. He added that he would like to see every member of the federation subscribe for as large an amount of the bonds as his means would permit and he gave his approval to the plan to make Wednesday, June 6th, Liberty
